Rubber Tire Project Fails

The effort to bring to Newark a rubber tire industry giving employment to 700 men and an annual payroll of a million dollars has been abandoned and because of the apathy by the public, the very life of the Newark Chamber of Commerce is threatened.

Persistent effort made by the leaders of the commercial organization, supplemented by conspicuous newspaper announcements and hundreds of telephone calls resulted in absolute failure. The attendance at last night's citizens' meeting in the High School auditorium was pitiful. Not more than 75 men were present. The absence of prominent men of the community, leading property owners, merchants and manufacturers was conspicuous. Without the help of men of this type industrial growth is impossible.

Monday night's mass meeting in the court house was well attended and no little enthusiasm was aroused by the presentation of the hope of landing a substantial industry. The project had been indorsed by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce as worthy of public support but when subscriptions were solicited for the purpose of raising a fund with which to bring the plant to town only a little more than $7000 was realized. In the hope of reaching the people who should be most vitally interested in the growth of the town, the meeting was adjourned until last night. Everybody seemed to be enthusiastic and reports made to the leaders indicated that a crowd would attend the second mass meeting.

Seventy-five patriots were present.

Immediately a motion was made to abandon the project but those who had been hopeful of the result were slow to give up. Chairman Ben Montgomery and Manager Appleyard did their best to arouse enthusiasm and for a few minutes it looked like the proposition might take new life but when the subscriptions were totaled they showed a sum less than $12,000 or about one-fourth of the required amount. As the final decision must be reached by tomorrow night, it was plain that further effort was useless.

The effect of this failure may be far-reaching in that it will naturally dampen the ardor of those who have been planning an enlarged Chamber of Commerce. Membership in the present organization has expired and plans have been under way for reorganization along bigger and broader lines. The collapse of the rubber plant project gives little encouragement for further effort at this time.

There has been more or less criticism of the Chamber of Commerce, practically all of which has been due to misinformation or ignorance of the facts. The men comprising the directory and the manager, Mr. Appleyard, have worked unceasingly for Newark and the fact that greater results do not show is due to lack of co-operation.

Let it be remembered that Newark owes its development to the commercial organization. The leading factors of Newark were brought here or were enlarged after they were located here through the efforts of the Board of Trade or the Chamber of Commerce. An institution of this kind is vital to the growth of the town.

Apathy, indifference, selfishness or thoughtlessness, whatever you want to call it, has defeated the effort to bring a live, growing industry to Newark. Unless the leading men of the town will get together and will give their time, effort and money for the public welfare, Newark can not hope to land many factories and unless more factories come and our present factories enlarge the city will not grow.

The pitiful attendance at last night's citizens' meeting called under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce was a disgrace to the town. While by the failure Newark has lost a factory that seemed to be almost within its grasp the failure, jeopardizing as it does the existence of the Chamber of Commerce, may after all prove a blessing in disguise. It may arouse the people to an appreciation of their responsibilities and their opportunities. Newark with its many advantages can grow into a great city if the people who live here will co-operate by giving some of their time, effort and cash unselfishly for the good of the town.

CHINESE MINISTER PROTESTS TREATY

Tseng Tsiang Lou.

Tseng Tsiang Lou, Chinese minister of foreign affairs and one of his country's delegates at the peace conference, joins with his fellow delegates in violently condemning the peace treaty as it affects China's interests. China is so increased over the terms which give to Japan increased power over her affairs that she may refuse to sign the treaty.

DAVID TOD DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Youngstown Multi-Millionaire Banker, Politician and Sportsman Succumbs at His Home.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Youngstown, May 14.—David Tod, aged 42, multi-millionaire, manufacturer, banker, politician and sportsman, died at his home here today of typhoid-pneumonia.

Mr. Tod was a candidate for governor of Ohio in 1914, running against former Governor Willis for the nomination. He was a former state senator from this district and has been prominent in local and state politics for many years.

His business interests included many Youngstown industries and banks. He was formerly at the head of the Wm. Tod company, recently taken over by the United Engineering & Foundry company.

Keenly interested in sports, especially racing, Mr. Tod was the owner of many fine race horses and owned Southdown Park, Youngstown's race track. He also had several large farms specializing in livestock.

During the war Mr. Tod was active in productive league work here.

Mr. Tod was born in Glendale, O., in 1870, the grandson of David Tod, Civil War governor of Ohio. He was educated in the Youngstown public schools, Purdue university, and Sheffield Scientific School of Yale, where he was a student in mechanical engineering.

He worked as a machinist's helper for the Wm. Tod company, of which concern he later became president. He was a director in several large manufacturing and financial institutions of Youngstown. Mr. Tod served as city councilman of Youngstown for five years, and served two terms in the state senate from Mahoning and Trumbull counties.

The first effect of the peace terms

upon Germany's economic situation.

The second with the manner in which President Wilson's points are applied, which is protested against, and the third with the principles of the reparation demands, which are protested, although it is declared that Germany is prepared to subscribe to them.

The three notes from the German delegation were delivered to the Council of Four this morning. They were very long.

The three German notes delivered to the Council of Four, the Havaas agency says, deal with the following subjects:

The first, effect of the peace terms

upon Germany's economic situation.

The second with the manner in which President Wilson's points are applied, which is protested against, and the third with the principles of the reparation demands, which are protested, although it is declared that Germany is prepared to subscribe to them.

The three places are the Bazaar in North Park Place, Samuel Burrell in South Second street and the Newark Liquor store in North Park Place having applied for the license.

The year's tax ends Saturday night, May 24.

The new semi-annual tax would start on Monday, May 26, and under the old law it is necessary to pay $500 for six months, and $500 for the next six months.

The minimum amount which may be paid for license is $200 and that is the amount paid by the three places which will do business on the 26th inst.

The government will issue liquor licenses any place at any time.

The present government liquor licenses are operative until July 1, of this year.

The state will issue the right to apply for license under the Dow Aiken law and which is operative for a year for the state.

No provisions in the dry law recently passed by the legislature have been made for emergency measures.

Consequently a large number of saloonkeepers are wondering where they stand.

It is said that in some places the law may be tested and that possibly may be done in this city.

In the meantime many places will close a week from the coming Saturday night and will close for good, while others will continue in business and serve lunch and dinner.

John A. School, wholesale dealer, will wind up his business and his room will be for rent.

Charles Henry Roberts will close his place of business and move onto a farm recently purchased west of the city.

Kidder & Bouton will close their place and enter the boot and shoe business.

Charles Livingston will take a closed restaurant and enter some other business and the room in the Warder Hotel will possibly be leased to some one who will carry a line of merchandise.

Samuel Curran, the Siler Hotel, the Teek Hall and the National Hotel on Second street will open.

They will drink near beer and lunch counter.

The Parker will be a soft drink and lunch stand with pools rooms in connection with Manager Lee Hamberg of the Newark Liquor store.

McKim said that he will do with his room what he will do with his car.

Frank Baker will continue his place of business as will Charles Schellenger in the old Homestead.

Edward Schellenger and Charles Blane, Joseph Stoum in West Main street will close his business at noon from Saturday night and live up in an apartment in Miami, Florida, where he had gone for his health.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in Green Hill cemetery.

EBERT FEARFUL OF AWAKENING OF GERMAN PEOPLE

Declares They Were Hypnotized by Promises of President.

SAYS PEACE UNEQUALLED IN 2000 YEARS OF HISTORY

Declares, However, His Cabinet Will Hold Out to the End.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Berlin, Sunday, May 12.—Declaring that the terms of peace presented by the allied and associated governments to Germany "contemplate the physical, moral and intellectual paralysis of the German people"; that Germans were "hypnotized" by statements made by President Wilson, and that he himself is looking forward to the future with grave apprehensions, President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American democracy would not accept the terms framed at the peace conference. He rejected with disdain the suggestion that the present German government would resign rather than accept or reject the terms, saying that

HUNGARY HAS NOT NAMED PEACE ENVOYS

Paris, Monday, May 13.—The Hungarian government has not yet accepted the invitation to name delegates for the signing of the peace treaty, but it is assumed here that the Bela Kun regime will gladly take advantage of this means of establishing relations with the outside world. Allied representatives at Vienna were directed recently to proceed to Budapest for the presentation of the proposal.

It was expected at this time that the soviet regime was about to fail, but it later developed that it had secured a new lease on life.

The instructions to the allied representatives were not withdrawn, however, and the results of this mission to Budapest are awaited.

Societies of New York Declare It Is In Accordance With President's Fourteen Points.

New York, May 14.—An appeal for support of the peace treaty was made by President Wilson, and that he himself is looking forward to the future with grave apprehensions. President Ebert said today that he still hoped that American democracy would not accept the terms framed at the peace conference. Several additional notes from the German peace delegation at Versailles are before the allied powers. These notes were delivered to the Council of Four this morning and shortly afterward in Paris it was announced that the council had appointed a sub-committee of five—one member from each of the great powers—to deal with the German propositions.

The council also had under consideration the subject of ports and waterways and various details of the Austrian peace treaty now being framed. Italy, it appears, is not insisting upon

WILL NEGOTIATE WITH LENINE TO SEND FOOD

Paris, May 14.—Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, head of the commission to feed Russia, has gone to that country to negotiate directly with Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier on the question of food relief and the cessation of fighting.

A Paris dispatch received last night stated that a message had been received there from M. Tchitcherin, Bolshevik foreign minister of Russia announcing that the Bolsheviks refused to cease hostilities as a condition to the provisioning of Russia by neutral countries.

We have always been taught that neither world peace nor industrial democ-

Sum Subscribed Not Sufficient to Finance Sale of Stocks or to Move Industry to Newark. Chamber of Commerce Directors Disappointed By Apathy Shown By Business Interests In Rare Opportunity For Industrial Growth.

Failure of Newark property owners, businessmen and citizens to support the proposal of bringing the big tire industry to Newark resulted in the abandonment of the prospect which was presented by the Chamber of Commerce.

When less than 100 men assembled at the mass meeting last night at the high school auditorium, and these were found to be largely men who had already subscribed, it was found to be impossible to swing the deal.

At a mass meeting held Monday evening, about 300 were in attendance, and the proposition was not carried.

As the proposition was not carried,

the industrial fund of the Chamber of Commerce, which was assembled only to be used as loan and not as a gift, and as the Chamber of Commerce stated at the time of the collection of the industrial fund, that there would be no further solicitation, the matter was turned over to the desire of the citizens of Newark.

At a mass meeting held Monday evening, about 300 were in attendance, and the meeting voted its approval of accepting the conditions of the negotiations and of endeavoring to meet them.

They had until the next evening, but the enthusiasm seems to have died immediately for it fell flat last night.

When asked concerning the defeat of the proposition Manager Appleyard said:

"Until people come to understand that if a town is good enough to work for, until they can come to value team work, and team thinking and can carry themselves out of their apathy, then they can be brought to confidence and faith.

These are the basis of everything, that unless there is confidence in one another, which is apparently lacking, and they are willing to lay aside all petty jealousies and criticisms of men and their methods; unless they are willing to plan to work together and work for the plan the efforts of any men or groups of men will be of great value to the town, it may serve as an object lesson, and they will appreciate that unless they unite in their efforts, and have a love in their heart for their community and wish to see it succeed, nothing can be done."

As for the tire company, they were

THE TURKISH CIGARETTE

Oriental Turkish tobacco charmed the natives hundreds of years ago.

And when travelers visited the Orient, a new delight awaited and thrilled them—in smoking Turkish cigarettes.

The tobacco in Murad is 100% Turkish and is gathered from those famous lands—and Murads are both charming and thrilling.

True they are a little more expensive than ordinary cigarettes—but oh, such a difference!

The German people," President Ebert continued, "is only beginning to awaken from the hypnosis into which it has been put by the use of its solid faith in the sincerity and truthfulness of Mr. Wilson's program and his 14 points."

The awakening will be terrifying and we all look forward to it with grave apprehensions. In the face of the world, we are still the only ones who can speak the truth which is to be told in the name of Wilson and the United States and the conception of the League of Nations."

SUPREME COURT GIVES DECISION 15-YEAR-OLD CASE

Was Tried Three Times, Three Lawyers and Three Litigants Die While It Is Pending.

The case of Eli Hull against H. Norris executor and others was decided by the supreme court Tuesday in favor of the defendants and against Hull.

The case was commenced 15 years ago and has been taken to the supreme court three times. It was tried in the common pleas court three times, in the court of common pleas twice in the court of appeals and three times in the supreme court.

The amount claimed by Hull was $1,000,000, with no personal interest or claim.

It was founded on a paper writing dated August 7, 1907, and claimed to be signed by Judge J. W. Vaughan and George H. Wright. The suit was commenced in 1907 by Charles H. Karp and H. F. McDonald, attorneys for Hull, and was dismissed by Judge David Jones, then of the Norwell circuit. The suit was then taken up by Harriet Green, Mrs. Hull, and H. O.

Green, of the street, and the case was passed to the court of appeals.

The court of appeals advised a report to the supreme court, and the case was referred to the court of appeals.

YEAR OF FOUR FAMOUS EUROPEAN DRIVERS WILL TRY TO CLEAN UP INDIANAPOLIS RACE

With four brand new racing creations, built in Paris since the signing of the armistice, Rene Thomas, Albert Guyot, Jules Bablot, and Louis Wagner, composing the Ballot team, will attempt to make a clean sweep of the Indianapolis 500-mile Liberty Sweepstakes on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, May 31st.

Only once in history has a racing team of four members succeeded in capturing all four first places in a major contest. This was in 1914, just prior to the outbreak of the war, when the Mercedes aggregation, of which Wagner was a member, swept the French Grand Prix at Le Mans.

The Ballot contingent is easily the most formidable ever sent to the United States by Europe, every individual composing it being a star of first magnitude. Rene Thomas is well known to American race followers by virtue of his victory in the Indianapolis 1914 500-mile race, in which Guyot finished third. Bablot has a long string of European victories to his credit, and Louis Wagner won the 1906 Vanderbilt on Long Island and the 1908 Grand Prize at Savannah.

ROTARIANS WILL TREAT KIDDIES

Youngsters at Children's Home Will Be Guests of Club at Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus.

The Kiddies at the Licking County Children's Home will be the guests of Newark Rotarians on the afternoon of Saturday, May 24th. The occasion will be the visit of the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus and the Rotarians at their meeting Tuesday noon voted to take the youngsters to the circus and to give them the joys of the big show and all the usual accompaniments of popcorn, peanuts and red lemonade. About forty children will be the guests of the Rotarians on Circus Day and will be taken to and from the show grounds in automobiles.

The Boy Scout movement was put on a firm foundation by the adoption of the report of a committee which investigated the needs of the boys of the city. The report advised the selection of a committee of twenty men representing all businesses, trades and professions. This committee will have full charge of the entire organization and of its work. To give the matter an added boost the Rotary Club sets aside a fund to assist in the purchase of uniforms for boys who are unable to meet the entire cost by their own efforts.

The principal speaker of Tuesday's meeting was Frank L. Johnson, a Newark Rotarian who saw long service overseas in the M. C. I. work. Mr. Johnson told many interesting experiences and gave the club the benefit of his personal observations.

Lieutenant David East, a Newark boy in the naval service, told of the measures taken by the United States Navy to overcome the submarine menace and explained the convoy system.

W. A. Dorey and Walter D. Bell were new members present at the meeting and W. A. Sprague was elected an honorary member by unanimous vote.

BULLETIN

One of the most important laws enacted by the Ohio General Assembly this winter protects the people of the state from the dangers incident to alleged examination of the eyes by persons who are incompetent and who do more harm than good.

The Matthews Bill which has been approved by the governor gives legal standing to the profession of Optometry.

The large number of persons in Ohio who have been practicing Optometry have tried for many years to have a law enacted to protect the people against the dangers of unscientific examination of the eyes. The Matthews law is a successful culmination of these years of endeavor.

The law says that after January first, 1920, it shall be unlawful for any person without a state license, to practice Optometry or attempt to determine by examination of the eyes, the kind of glasses needed by any person. The governor shall appoint a State Board of Optometry, consisting of five persons, and anyone desirous of engaging in the practice of Optometry must pass examinations prescribed by this board. After the first of July 1920, the public will be fully protected against the mal-practice that follows non-professional examinations of the eyes, for by that date every person engaged in the practice of Optometry must have had a license.

The law specifically protects the people against the house to house canvasser, the street-corner eye-glass fitter and the establishment of temporary offices.

Not Much of a Pusher.

It was the elevated station at 8:30 on a weekday morning. The advice of the Irish guard who helps close the gates of the rear cars was an education in itself. But he had a competitor in a girl who was doing her valiant best to get on. "Push, push," she urged of a weak little masculine beside her. In a wish-washy voice he replied that he was pushing. Back came the swift retort: "You make me tired? You push like a jellyfish!"—New York Sun.

His Ruling Thought.

One hears a great deal about the absent-minded professor, but it would be hard to find one more absent-minded than the dentist who said soothingly, as he applied a tool to his automobile, under which he lay: "Now, this is going to hurt just a little."

HOW WEAK WOMEN ARE MADE STRONG

Mrs. Westmoreland Tells in the Following Letter.

Harrison, N. Y.—"When my first child was born I did not know about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had a very hard time. I read in the newspaper about the Vegetable Compound and when my second child came I took it and was well during the whole time, and childbirth was a hundred times easier. Ever since then I have used it for any weakness and would not be without it for the world. I do all my work and am strong and healthy. I am nursing my baby, and I still take the Vegetable Compound as it keeps a woman in good health. You may publish my testimonial for the good of other women if you choose to do so."—Mrs. C. WESTMORELAND, Harrison, N. Y.

Women who suffer from dispepsia, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headaches and nervousness should look no time in giving his famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial, and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham, Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Cleaning Wallpaper.

To clean and polish wallpaper, add two tablespoonfuls of ammonia to half a pailful of water, and wash the walls down with a napkin dipped in this. Take half a pailful of water and add two tablespoonfuls of turpentine. Wash the walls a second time with this and wipe as dry as possible.

A Glass Horn.

An innovation in phonographs is an instrument equipped with a horn or beveled mirror glass. The claim of the makers is that the horn of a talking machine best amplifies the tone when its surface is smooth and rigid, hence one of heavy glass is preferable to one of wood or metal.

Appropriate Look.

Robert had lost his little pet dog and felt bad about it. His father told him poor little Fido must be dead or he would return home. His mother sent him on an errand, when he met a woman friend of his mother's who asked him if he was ill, as he had little to say. "Oh, no," he said, "but my little dog is dead and I am wearing a black look."

Hired Man's Life Saved.

James was bowlegged and felt it his duty to whip every boy that reminded him of the fact. When he visited in the country the hired man laughed and told him he couldn't stop a pig if he tried. James told his mother what the man had said, then added: "He's pretty big, and I'm mighty glad he didn't say I was bowlegged."

Maybe You're Rich.

Some men are rich and don't know it—rich in health, rich in large and happy family, rich in friends, rich in influence and standing in their communities, rich in the spirit of charity and brotherly love. These same men may be poor in this world's goods, but they're rich, just the same.—Crossman.

ELVIA, OHIO—I can highly recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery as a household remedy and as a tonic and builder in run-down conditions. Golden Medical Discovery has been of great value to me and my family for years and it is a pleasure to recommend it.—Mrs. Emma Vessell, 223 Rush St.

Worthy Mate of Great Writer.

James Russell Lowell's first wife, Maria White Lowell, was also a poet. A small collection of her verses, printed privately by Lowell in 1855, two years after her death, is now almost forgotten. One copy of it is preserved in the archives of the New York public library. She was the daughter of a farmer in Watertown, Mass. In letters to a friend, when Lowell was first getting acquainted with Maria, he said: "She knows more poetry than anyone I know."

Be Slow to Condemn.

Why condemn an individual or institution before you hear both sides? Does a jury convict or a judge sentence a prisoner before the evidence is heard?

Tea Testing.

To ascertain whether artificial coloring matter has been added to tea, place a quantity on white paper and rub with knife to a fine powder. Now brush the paper with a brush, and if any prussian blue has been used there will be little streaks on the paper.

Big Canadian Telescope.

The tube of the telescope erected by the Canadian dominion at Victoria, B. C., is large enough to permit of the passage of a small automobile and the reflector is 73 inches in diameter. The movable parts of the telescope weigh more than 40 tons, and the lens alone more than 4,000 pounds, yet one man can easily move the mass into any desired position.

AMERICAN AVIATOR TO RACE AT INDIANAPOLIS

Fresh off from a Isordome, France, where he supervised the largest number of Liberty planes assembled at any European aviation camp, Lieut. Arthur Klein, driver of a Peugeot car in the Indianapolis 500-mile Liberty Sweepstakes, carries the hopes of American aviators who follow the fortunes of this event.

Klein is a full-fledged pilot, having achieved his R. M. A. rating and pilot's license shortly after his arrival in Europe. He tried to enlist early in the war, but was rejected because of a slight physical defect. Persevering in the face of repeated rejections, he finally managed to get accepted, being commissioned an engineering officer in the aviation service.

Ground work did not appeal to Lieut. Klein, however, and when the armistice was signed, he was in process of being transferred to a pursuit squadron at the front. That the war ended before he had an opportunity to demonstrate his valor and become an American ace will always be Klein's one regret. Klein will attempt during the Liberty Sweepstakes race to demonstrate some of the tricks he acquired in airplane maneuvering, and is expected to rank as one of the favorites for first honors.

He is not a new comer to the track, having competed in the 1913 and 1914 Indianapolis 500-mile events.

It is made into half-pound balls and then packed for shipment.

HESS TEAM DEFEATS STANDARD MOTORS

It was a case of Dodge against Ford last night when the A. P. Hess Auto team played the Standard Motor Service team at White Field. This game was one that should have been played off last weekend, but deferred. Crossman, Standard's third baseman, gets the batter's box medal with five runs batted in, against him with the McGeough of the A. P. Hess team a close second with four runs. Most of the time it appeared that both teams were running on three cylinders with the fourth breaking in at unexpected moments. In the last inning "Pop" McGeough thought he lost his carburetor but when it was finally adjusted he swat the sphere for a pretty hit over first. Score by innings:

HAWKINS LANDS IN U. S.

E. E. Hawkins of the Central Fire station received a telegram this morning from his son, Claude D. Hawkins, stating his son had arrived safely from overseas and had been assigned to Camp Merritt and would probably be sent to Camp Sherman for discharge from army service. An hour later Mr. Hawkins received a telegram from the Salvation Army in New York telling of his son's safe arrival with "all's well," which proves that that hand of workers is ever on the job looking after the comfort and welfare of the soldier boys. Hawkins has been in France sixteen months as a member of the signal service of the U. S. Army.

HOME-MAKING NOT SO EASY

Housewife Seems to Be Right When She Condemns Ideas Formulated by the Theorists.

"I am always amused," said the housewife, according to the New York Evening Post, "at the proposition we so often read and hear that munition and factory girls enter domestic service. The theorists seem to imagine that such a change can be accomplished right about face—overnight, in the twinkling of an eye. Good housework, of the sort that should be our standard, is not so easy as all that. While I don't consider that housework requires lifelong training, yet never have I taken a girl from a factory who knew the difference between a cloth for washing dishes and one for wiping floors. As a rule a factory girl is ignorant of the simplest sanitary essentials that stand for home making. Cooking she may be taught, and cleaning she may learn, but the basic principles and habit are not picked up so readily. Many a time have I said to a maid: 'Had you gone to kindergarten you would never have piled your dishes and saucers like that.' It was at a kindergarten conference in California, you may recall, where it was said that no convicted criminal in that state had had kindergarten training. Besides their uncertain help in the homes of others think how wanting in their own homes—when they get them—these young factory girls will be unless they pick up considerably more knowledge about domestic ways and means."

CHARGE PENICK WITH DISTURBING CHURCH

Clyde Penick of Eden township was brought before Justice D. M. Jones Tuesday afternoon, charged with disturbing a religious meeting Saturday evening in Mary Ann township by singing and yelling and using loud and boisterous language. He gave bond of $100 for his appearance Monday at 2 p.m. when the case will be heard. George Pinnin as a member of the church filed the affidavit.

KIRKERSVILLE RED CROSS SENDS IN FINISHED WORK

BILL IS FINDING THAT THINKING UP AN EXPLANATION IS BY NO MEANS AN EASY TASK.

Bill Dudley and eleven other pinochle players who are members of a progressive pinochle club left their South side homes to go to Beech Grove the other night. While at Fountain square waiting for the Beech Grove car Bill and Joe Beck got too far away from the car to catch it and the other ten went to Beech Grove. Then Bill got an idea and he and Beck stole home to where Bill's car rested—for his wife won't let him take it out after dark. They opened the garage door noiselessly, pushed the car out and down the street for a block and then stepped on the starter. They got to Beech Grove before the rest of the club did.

Bill and his friend Beck drove home after the club meeting and repeated the performance in getting the car back in the garage. Then he went into the house. Presently the crowd came along and yelled at Bill through the window. Of course, that entailed explanations on Bill's part to his wife as to how he got home first. The other members of the club say Bill has not yet been able to explain to his wife how he beat them home.—Indianapolis News.

NOT WORTH A ROOSTER.

Having lived next door to the home of a minister, I was often called in to witness his hasty wedding.

ON ONE OCCASION THE PROSPECTIVE BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM ARRIVED IN A FARM WAGON. After the ceremony was duly performed the bridegroom asked to be excused just a moment, and on returning from his wagon he said:

"Parson, I have no money to give you, but here is a nice young rooster for your Thanksgiving dinner, and I will give you a turkey for Christmas."

On several occasions the minister saw the same man, in town, who seemed to avoid him. One day on meeting him face to face he said:

"Parson, I may as well tell you that I am not going to bring that turkey; I have found out she was not even worth the rooster I gave you."

RETURN OF THE OX.

The ox as a beast of burden is coming into its own again in the farming communities of Maine and the oxen and apparatus used by blacksmiths in shoeing the animals, long ago thrown into the discard, is in use again. The sling consists of a rude frame of timber into which the animal is fastened by a pillory. Straps are then drawn under the body, the ends being made fast to upper timbers of the frame. In blacksmith shop 20 years ago the slings were common. Oxen are less expensive to feed than horses and are equally as useful on small farms and the rising value of feed is having much to do with the comeback of the ox as a work animal.

FOUND AN EXECUTIVE.

The boys in a small Indiana high school desired a football team, but got no encouragement from their principal, who is a young woman. Finally they asked her if they could hold a meeting to organize a team. She gave her consent, but offered no comment other than, "I'm afraid you boys aren't good enough executives to manage such an affair."

The next morning they told her the result of their meeting. "We organized our team," they said, "and, remembering what you told us about needing good executives, we elected you captain."

SCIENTIFIC ARGUMENT.

The medical officer on a troop train was explaining the nature of the influenza germ to the colored porter.

"Well, Cap'n, pears to me that that gumb would freeze to death in this cold weather, 'cause an animal of that size would hardly have blood enough to keep body an' soul together,"

Frederic W. Ganzert in Judge.

The eighth wonder of the world is the man who can read a weather map.

NO ACTION TAKEN TO ASSIST LABOR BUREAU

The Newark employment bureau has received no information concerning the reports from Zanesville that the Zanesville office for the assistance of returned soldiers, sailors and marines, was to look after the needs of the Licking county soldiers.

No further action has been taken here on the matter of finding the local bureau so it may care for the returning men in service, but the office is still operating. The information from Zanesville state that the work of Licking county is to be divided between Columbus and Zanesville.

At the local employment bureau it was stated that there were few positions posted there for skilled help and that they had several applications from men who wanted that kind of work. However, there is a demand for common labor, and these positions have all been filled.
